

THE PUSH FOR CHANGE STOPS IN CALEDON & TOTTENHAM THURSDAY

12/22/2016 8:44:06 AM

If you're in the Caledon area Thursday (Dec. 22) you might see a man pushing a shopping cart.

That's Joe Roberts, a former street youth turned successful entrepreneur.

He's walking across Canada to end youth homelessness.

Your browser does not support the audio tag.

Roberts says ending youth homelessness starts with prevention.

Your browser does not support the audio tag.

Roberts' was at Caledon Town Hall Thursday morning before making his way to St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Secondary School in Tottenham.

His 9,000 km journey will end in Vancouver on September 30th, 2017.

WebReady™ Powered by WireReady® NSI | © Copyright 2008-2011 My Broadcasting Corporation

Back to News
