On April 20, Joe Roberts and his shopping cart arrived in Winnipeg. The former homeless youth turned businessman and motivational speaker is aiming to walk across Canada while pushing a cart to raise money and awareness for youth dealing with homelessness. Roberts began his journey in Newfoundland in May 2016, and he expects to reach B.C. in September. Money raised during Roberts' visit to Winnipeg was donated to RaY (Resources for Youth Inc.) and the Push for Change.
