Joe Roberts and his Push for Change cross-country walk to raise awareness and funds to prevent youth homelessness will stop at Kamloops United Church on Tuesday, Aug. 1, at 8 a.m.

It will be Day 458 of 517 when Joe Roberts and The Push for Change campaign arrives in Kamloops on Tuesday, Aug. 1.

Roberts is crossing Canada by pushing a shopping cart — the symbol of chronic homelessness — 24 kilometres per day to raise awareness and funds to prevent youth homelessness.

More than $500,000 has been raised so far for youth homeless-prevention initiatives. In support of A Way Home Kamloops, Roberts will be at Kamloops United Church, downtown at St. Paul Street and Fourth Avenue, from 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. for a breakfast and to talk about his Push for Change journey from St. John's.

The breakfast is a by-donation fundraiser for Push for Change and A Way Home Kamloops.

A Way Home is a local plan to end youth homelessness in Kamloops.
