

The Corporation of the City of Belleville
Office of the Mayor

As Mayor of the City of Belleville, it is my pleasure to welcome Joe Roberts to the City of Belleville as you pass through for the Push for Change.

Your mission that has taken you across the country has raised much needed awareness for youth homelessness in Canada. I want to congratulate you on the courageous journey that you are taking Nationwide to benefit the youth in our Country. The sacrifice that you are making has already made such an impact.

On behalf of my colleagues on City Council, thank you for your efforts and selfless acts made on behalf of the youth in our great Nation.

Kind Regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'Taso A. Christopher'.

Taso. A Christopher
Mayor

The Corporation of the City of Belleville

presents this certificate of appreciation to

JOE ROBERTS

for being the driving force behind

THE PUSH FOR CHANGE

HISTORY OF BELLEVILLE

- 1789 50 United Empire Loyalists arrive.
- 1789 Population grows to 150.
- 1816 Belleville named in honour of Lady Anabelle Gore, wife of Lieutenant-Governor of Province.
- 1878 January 1 – Belleville becomes a City. The event was celebrated on Dominion Day of that year in great style.

Taso A. Christopher, Mayor

October 12th, 2016

Date