Orillia Georgian students camp out for a cause

simcoe.com/news-story/6989411-orillia-georgian-students-camp-out-for-a-cause/

Orillia Georgian students camp out for a cause

|

Nov 27, 2016 | Vote 0   0

Frank Matys

Georgian College students slept outside Friday night to raise awareness of the 'Push For Change' initiative.

Orillia Today

By Frank Matys

Kayla Young and Jessica Peckford were among a group of students at Orillia's Georgian College campus who spent Friday night sleeping in cardboard boxes to support 'Push For Change', a national effort aimed at ending youth homelessness. The 12-hour event included guest speakers, entertainment and a 'basic needs' scavenger hunt.

Related Stories

Severn firefighters hit the road...

Frank Matys is a reporter for Orillia Today. You can reach him at fmatys@simcoe.com . Follow Orillia Today on Twitter and Simcoe.com on Facebook

|