

Orillia college students braving cold to shed light on homelessness

simcoe.com/news-story/7181929-orillia-college-students-braving-cold-to-shed-light-on-homelessness/

Orillia college students braving cold to shed...

Like 0

Tweet

G+1 0

|
Mar 14, 2017 | Vote 0 0

Residents can contribute to the cause with donations

SleepOut Challenge

Frank Matys/Metroland

Georgian College students Stephen Gander (left), Aaron Myrsky, Terese Adams and Phoenix Foxwell are encouraging the community to contribute pledges during a SleepOut Challenge at the Orillia campus March 30. Bundled in sleeping bags, participants will spend the night outside in support of Push For Change, a national initiative aimed at raising awareness of youth homelessness. Contributions can be made during the event, which runs from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Orillia Today

By Frank Matys

Georgian College students Stephen Gander (left), Aaron Myrsky, Terese Adams and Phoenix Foxwell are encouraging the community to contribute pledges during a SleepOut Challenge at the Orillia campus March 30.

Related Stories

Barrie's homelessness problem at...

Bundled in sleeping bags, participants will spend the night outside in support of Push For Change, a national initiative aimed at raising awareness of youth homelessness.

Contributions can be made during the event, which runs from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Frank Matys is a reporter for Orillia Today. You can reach him at fmatus@simcoe.com . Follow Orillia Today on Twitter and Simcoe.com on Facebook

|