

The Push for Change campaign and Joe Roberts have officially left Ontario myhaliburtonnow.com/17075/push-change-campaign-joe-roberts-officially-left-ontario/

Taylor Ablett

Joe Roberts and his Push for Change campaign has officially left Ontario as part of its country wide effort to battle youth homelessness.

Roberts, who faced addiction and homelessness as a teen made stops along the way to speak with students.

Roberts says the problem of youth homeless is unique in every community, what works to help those in Haliburton may not necessarily work somewhere else.

Roberts' story of turning adversity to opportunity has made him a successful entrepreneur, philanthropist and motivational speaker.