Re: Joe Roberts – Push for Change Campaign

I recently had the opportunity to hear Joe Roberts speak about The Push for Change initiative. To say I was inspired is an understatement. I want to thank Joe for his honest and moving stories about his own struggles with addictions and youth homelessness.

From my own work on the Calgary Homeless Foundation Community Council I understand that homelessness is a complex issue with no easy solution. The first step is to make the public aware of the problem. By pushing a shopping cart across Canada, Joe is bringing awareness to the devastating issue of youth homelessness.

I encourage you to support Joe in creating sustainable change and ending youth homelessness in Canada. Share his story with your friends, family and neighbours. Encourage them to take personal action to make a difference; homelessness and addictions can be beaten.

I am pleased to offer my support to Joe Roberts as he approached the end of his walk for youth homelessness.

Sincerely,

Greg Clark BA MBA
