

Push for Change hits Quinte

quintenews.com/2016/10/push-change-hits-quinte/129167/

Tim Durkin

10/12/2016

A man walking coast to coast with a shopping cart has arrived in Quinte.

BC native Joe Roberts, who lived on the streets of Vancouver, is raising money for homeless youth.

Wednesday, Roberts will be leaving the Dundas Street McDonald's at 12:30 p.m., arriving at Belleville's Market Square at 1:00 p.m.

Thursday, Roberts will head to Trenton High School for an event.

He began his journey in Quinte with a stop in Marmora, Tuesday.

More details can be found on the Push for Change, by CLICKING HERE